Big Sister Bulletin

BIG SISTER ASSOCIATION OF GREATER BOSTON

Promises Kept

Dear Friends,

Every new year we begin with the same resolution: to ensure that every girl has the chance to reach her full potential through the guidance, care and support of a Big Sister. We are confident that our resolution will be fulfilled because of your continued belief and trust in us. Last year,

Above: Big Sister staff in August 2013; Top Right: Big Sister Allison Jordan and Little Sister Thalia.

- we promised to match 325 girls in our Community Based Mentoring program… and we did.
- we promised to match 300 girls in our School Based Mentoring program…and we did.
- we promised to provide monthly training for 100 Little Sisters to educate them on issues of puberty, sexual health and goal setting….and we did.
- we promised to provide a safe space every week for 142 adolescent girls to meet with staff to discuss whatever issues were on their mind…and we did.
- we promised to provide scholarships, camp, work and summer job opportunities to our Little Sisters...and we did.
- we promised to support the leadership development of 42 high school girls….and we did.
- we promised to support the existing relationships between over 2,000 Big Sisters and Little Sisters...and we did.

We keep our promises.

Thank you for believing in us, and giving the girls of our City the chance to be all they are capable of being.

When you invest in a girl, you are investing in our future.

Happy New Year!

Big in Boston

On Saturday, November 9, our Big Sister community gathered to celebrate Greater Boston's girls and to honor our 2013 Believe in Girls award recipient, President and CEO of Hill Holliday, Karen Kaplan.

Hosted by Event Co-Chairs Jack Connors, Jr. and Charlie Baker, and emceed by Board Member Lisa Hughes of WBZ-TV, the event was a night to remember. Mayor Thomas Menino joined us as we thanked him for his 20 years of leadership and presented him with a gift: a mosaic created by girls from the Orchard Gardens School Life Choices group.

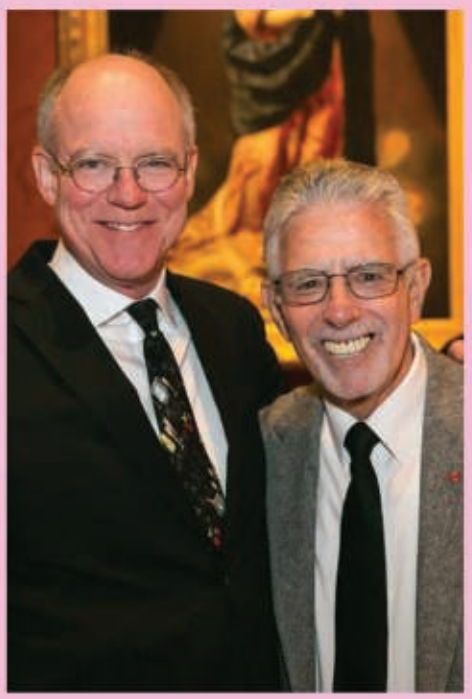

More than 400 guests attended to show their support including United States Senator Elizabeth Warren, former Boston Police Commissioner Ed Davis, Wing de la Torre and Steward CEO Ralph de la Torre, Boston Chamber of Commerce President & CEO Paul Guzzi, CBS Boston President and General Manager Mark Lund, EMC Corporation Vice Chairman Bill Teuber, and Bryan Rafanelli CEO Bryan Rafanelli. Guests heard from Little Sister Colleen White about her Big Sister Kristen Herlihy: "I don't know where I would be if I hadn't had a Big Sister. At age eleven, I saw Kristen as someone who wasn't from Southie. Today I see my best friend." The night ended with a Mad Men themed after-party hosted by Big Sister's Young Professional Board.

The event raised more than $1,000,000 which will fund matching Greater Boston's girls with a trained mentor, support Big and Little Sisters' growing relationships, and provide customized relationship building activities.

Big Sister Day: a Success!

Saturday, September 28 was a fantastic day for Big Sister! This year at Rodman Ride for Kids more than forty riders joined Team Big Sister and challenged themselves to complete a 25, 50, or whopping 100 mile cycling tour to raise money in support of our mentoring programs for girls in Greater Boston. On the same day, more than 200 runners dressed in their best-worst formal attire in Boston.com's 2nd annual Running with the Bridesmaids, a fun run through the Boston Commons, where all proceeds benefit Big Sister.

Team Big Sister raised more than $92,000 for both events. Thank you to Rodman Ride founder Don Rodman, Team Big Sister co-captains Joe Realmuto and Denise Coll, as well as The Boston Globe for sponsoring and hosting Running with the Bridesmaids.

'Tis the Season at Big Sister!

Our annual Winter Wonderland Party was held on December 8 at Faneuil Hall Marketplace. More than 200 Big and Little Sisters as well as girls waiting to be matched with a Big Sister, enjoyed the fun activities. Of course, in Big Sister spirit, the favorite activity of the day was creating a flash mob along with the Microsoft Team's donated game system.

In addition to Microsoft, Big Sister partnered with many other companies who donated gifts to our Little Sisters: the Boston Globe, the Masonic Angel Foundation, P&G, the Parent's Network, Perkins + Will, and the Women's Information Network at State Street Corporation.

Fueling a Little Sister's Dream

During Big Sister Ladan Khamsi's of Cambridge first meeting with Little Sister Jah Nayah, 8, of Somerville she noticed she had a lot of energy, was extremely agile, and had a fearless attitude when it came to playgrounds. Big Sister Ladan instantly thought her Little Sister was meant to try gymnastics. Unfortunately, the cost of lessons at the nearest gym was prohibitive for Jah Nayah's family. Laden was determined; she worked out a deal with the Gymnastics Academy of Boston/Cambridge. They offered to reduce their price by 75% for a 20 week class. Then, another act of kindness happened: the Masonic Angel Foundation, a long-time partner of Big Sister, offered to pay the rest of the cost for Jah Nayah to attend. Big Sister Laden said, "I can't believe these classes are now a reality for Jah Nayah. She is already one of the stars in her class and talks about making it to the Olympics one day." We are thankful to the Gymnastics Academy of Boston/Cambridge and the Masonic Angel Foundation for their generous donation as well as Big Sister Ladan for using her advocacy skills to support her Little Sister's dream.

The Gift of Warmth

Big Sister's holiday coat drive wrapped up in record time! Nearly 100 girls who live in Boston and the surrounding communities received a new coat in their favorite color, festively wrapped. Highland Street Foundation's Holly & David Bruce started this year's campaign by contributing 20 coats for girls on the wait list. In just two days, thanks to our generous community, every girl on the wait list who had hoped for a new winter coat was selected by a donor. Thank you to everyone who donated a coat!
