BIG SISTER BULLETIN

Big Sister Association of Greater Boston

Winter 2015

FROM THE CEO

Newsworthy

Dear Friends,

Last year, girls and women made the headlines. We applauded the selection of Malala Yousafzai as our Nobel Peace Prize laureate, and were concerned with the rise of campus violence against women. We were encouraged to learn that pay equity among women is increasing in many countries, and were enraged by the kidnapping of over 200 girls in Nigeria. Although we may not directly impact girls and women nationally or internationally, we do work together to create a stronger community for the girls in our region.

Many individuals and companies stepped up in 2014 to offer their support to us and provide opportunities for our Little Sisters. FleishmanHillard stood up and said, We will help you with your marketing efforts; Paul Revere Transportation said, We will provide transportation for your Little Sisters; professionals from Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts said, We will help you develop a stronger support structure for your staff; the Boston Police Department said, We will train you in self-defense to help keep you safe; forty-four people from our community stepped up and said, We will provide winter coats for the girls waiting to be matched with a Big Sister; and, seven hundred women stood up and said, We will become Big Sisters.

In addition, as a member of our new Governor Charlie Baker's transition committee, I saw firsthand the deep commitment of our Governor to improve the quality of life and create access and opportunity for all Massachusetts residents. Serving on Mayor Walsh's Women's Commission, it's clear to me that the welfare of girls and women is an essential part of his agenda to create a healthy, vibrant City.

Another important leader in sustaining a strong, connected City is the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce. Being recognized by the Chamber to receive their Pinnacle Award for Non-profit Management, demonstrates the value they place on the work that we are doing at Big Sister to improve the lives of girls, and women, in our region.

Megan Costello, Executive Director of the Mayor's Office of Women's Advancement, Big Sister Julia Geisman, City Councillor Ayanna Pressley, and Big Sister staff.

As we launch the New Year with National Mentoring Month, our mentors and Alumnae are preparing for a day of advocacy at the State House. We are fortunate to work in a City where so many individuals are committed to ensuring that Greater Boston is a place where girls and women can thrive.

We know that when we all come together: government, corporate, private, and public, all citizens, focused not on our otherness but on our oneness, our community will only grow stronger.

We are grateful for the giving, compassionate spirit of the Big Sister community. We know it is only through this interwoven fabric of support, that we will reach more than 2,700 girls in 2015, giving them each the opportunity to achieve their full potential.

We wish you all a happy, healthy, and joyful New Year.

Warm regards,

COMING UP

BIG THINGS HAPPENING

Big in Boston: Every Girl, A Masterpiece

Saturday, November 8, was a BIG night for our Big Sister community. More than 500 of Boston's business and community leaders gathered to celebrate Greater Boston's girls and to honor our 2014 Believe in Girls award recipient, Jack Connors, Jr.

Hosted by Event Chairs Dr. Ralph de la Torre and John Fish, and emceed by Board Member Lisa Hughes of WBZ-TV, surprise guests included Mayor Martin J. Walsh and Governor-elect Charlie Baker. Other guests in attendance included State Representatives Russell Holmes, Smitty Pignatelli, Jeffrey Sanchez; and City Councillor Ayanna Pressley. We heard tributes to Jack Connors from those near and dear to him, including: Karen Kaplan; Jim Gallagher; Dr. Paula Johnson; Don Rodman; and Sharon McNally.

Big Sister Melissa York and Little Sister Danielle Thompson shared the story of their 12 year relationship. Danielle was a shy child who did not open up to adults. Melissa was a marketing VP at Digitas LBi looking for meaning in her life and wanted to give back. Little did they know the impact they both would have on each other when they signed up with Big Sister Association. Melissa realized that Danielle was there for her just as much as she was for Danielle. After graduating from college, Danielle followed in Melissa's career footsteps and began a career in marketing. Melissa and Danielle represent the life-changing impact a Big Sister and Little Sister can have on each other with the support of Big Sister's trained staff.

The night ended with an after-party hosted by Big Sister's Young Professional Board.

Big in Boston raised more than $1,100,000, providing 2,600 girls like Danielle with caring, professionally trained mentors who will support their success for years to come.

CROSSING THE FINISH LINE

Rodman Ride for Kids

Every September for the past 24 years, the Rodman Ride for Kids has challenged charitable organizations to gather a team of cyclists to participate in a 25, 50, or 100 mile bike ride to raise funds for their organization. The growing Big Sister team had 66 cyclists and "virtual riders" to help us raise a record high: thanks to our generous riders and donors, we received more than $100,000 to support our mentoring programs for Greater Boston's girls. The Rodman Ride for Kids matched 6% of the funds received. Thank you to Rodman Ride President Don Rodman, Team Big Sister captain and Board Vice President, Joe Realmuto, all of our Team Big Sister riders, our volunteers, the Yellow Jackets, as well as our sponsors Holly and David Bruce, The Boston Globe, and Mortgage Masters.

SISTER STORY

Sisters Pay It Forward

An online contest leads to a real-life example of the caring and support fostered by the Big Sister community.

This fall we held a social media contest, asking Big Sisters to send us a photo that best represents their relationship with their Little Sisters. Big Sister Darlene Reynolds and Little Sister Azariya won the contest with 148 "Likes." In a close second were Big Sister Andrea Brancato-Walke and Little Sister Carman. Darlene and Azariya were thrilled that they had won, but they were more impressed with Andrea and Carman's relationship. Carman and Andrea have been Sisters for 24 years, and counting! Darlene felt it was important to show Azariya what it means to pay it forward; so, they donated their winnings, a gift card to the Mandarin Oriental Hotel Spa, to Andrea and Carman. Andrea decided to give the gift card to her Little Sister, Carman, who is due to give birth to her second child. Andrea and Carman were so moved by Darlene and Azariya that they donated a gift card to them.Darlene and Azariya and Andrea and Carman are an inspiration to us and a reminder that the Big Sister community is one of support, respect, and mutual compassion.

CREATING COMMUNITY

The Not So Little Sister Board

As an organization, Big Sister benefits from the knowledge, skills, and experience of our volunteer board members. We have the Big Sister Board of Directors, Advisory Board, Young Professional Board, Diversity Council, Alumnae Association Board, and now we have the Little Sister Board. In 2014, our Little Sisters, ages 13 and older, formed the Little Sister Board to focus on increasing teen participation through events, activities, and leadership opportunities. The Little Sister Board is a great way for teen girls to become more engaged with the organization and share what is important to them so we can tailor our services to meet their needs. The longer girls stay in our mentoring programs, the more they'll benefit from the positive impacts of a mentoring relationship, and the opportunities that come with being a Little Sister: summer camps, scholarships, networking events, and more.

The Little Sister Board held their first fundraiser in December, selling #BigSisterBoston shirts. In just two weeks they sold 241 shirts, which surpassed their goal and raised $1,520. Teen Little Sisters intend to use the funds for planning and hosting activities that are meaningful for them, enhancing their life experiences, and deepening their bonds with their Big Sisters.

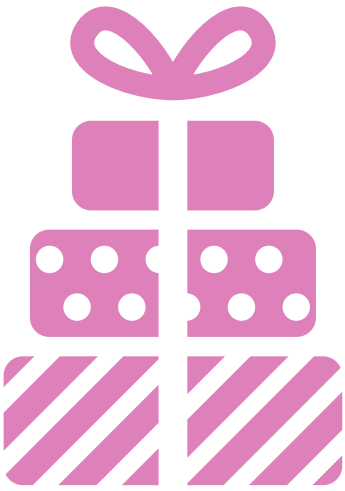

WARMING UP WINTER

Giving the Gift of Warmth & Joy

Big Sister's holiday coat drive provided the gift of warmth to 78 girls waiting to be paired with a Big Sister. Every girl received a new coat in her favorite color, from a very generous donor, and a holiday card written by the High School Mentoring Sisters. Highland Street Foundation kicked off this year's campaign by donating 34 coats followed by the staff at New England Aquarium's donation of 15 coats. This season we also had volunteers wrap and deliver the coats. We are thrilled that all of the girls who requested a winter coat this year received one, thanks to the generous donations from our community!
